

Radon Resistant New Construction (RRNC) Training For Nebraska November 4th and 5th, 2019

The Nebraska Radon Program is providing four 2-hour workshops across the state focused on the new radon resistant construction building code requirements. There are no fees for these workshops. Intended audiences are building contractors, radon contractors, code officials, and realtors. Nebraska licensed radon contractors will receive two hours of continuing education credit.

These training courses are sponsored by the Nebraska Radon Program and will be conducted by the Engineering Extension Office at Kansas State University at the following locations and dates:

Date: _____ Time: _____ Location: _____

Grand Island

November 4th 3-5 pm College Park 3180 W. Highway 34 Grand Island Room 207-208

Lincoln

November 5th 8-10 am Nebraska State Office Building 1526 K Street Lincoln 4th floor Room D

Omaha

November 5th 1-3 pm Douglas-Sarpy County Extension Office 8015 West Center Rd. Omaha Room A

November 5th 7-9 pm Douglas-Sarpy County Extension Office 8015 West Center Rd. Omaha Room A

Register by October 31, 2019 --There are no fees for these courses.

To register, please contact:

Grace Anderson

Nebraska Department of Health and Human Services

Radon Program 402-471-1005

grace.anderson@nebraska.gov